

KEEN INTEREST IN THIS WEDDING

Marriage of Mrs. Claiborne and General Cox Great Society Event.

OTHER NOTABLE NUPTIALS

June Brides Never More Beautiful or Numerous Than at Present.

O guard our affection, nor e'er let it feel The blight that this world o'er the warmest will steal;
While the faith of all around us is fading Or past, Let ours, evergreen, keep its bloom to the last.

Far safer for Love 'tis to wake and to weep,
As he used in his prime, than go smiling to sleep;
For death on his slumber, cold death follows fast, While the love that is wakeful lives on to the last.

And though as Time gathers his clouds O'er our head, A shade somewhat darker o'er life they may spread, Transparent, at least, be the shadow they cast,
So that Love's softened light may shine through to the last.

—Tom Moore.

Notable Event of Week.

A most important event of the week, and one in which society people of Virginia, North Carolina and other States are keenly interested, is the wedding of Mrs. Herbert Augustus Claiborne and General William Rufus Cox, of Florida, North Carolina, to take place Wednesday next in Mrs. Claiborne's home, on West Grace Street.

Occupying, as she does, the highest official position, in being president of the Society of Colonial Dames in the United States, and as president of the Virginia Society, Mrs. Claiborne has filled both positions so admirably that she has won the sincerest esteem, respect and confidence not only of her own states-women, but of the national body. It is a pleasure for her Richmond friends to know that she will still spend the greater part of each winter in the city, and that her Grace Street residence will be kept open, as has always been its hospitable word during her former absences. She has been a hostess and a figure in Richmond society that the community could ill afford to give up.

General Cox has a brilliant reputation as an officer of the Confederate army, as judge, congressional representative and secretary of the United States Senate from North Carolina. He is a leader in his section of the country and the owner of a splendid country estate in Edgecombe county, where he will spend some time after his marriage, devoting the remainder of the summer to travel.

Engagement Announced.

Mrs. George A. Ball, of Leesburg, Louisiana, announces the engagement of her daughter, Annie Lee, to Mr. Harry Braden Ball, of Newport News, Va. The wedding will take place June 28th, in Christ Church, Goochville, at 2 P. M., the Rev. J. W. Morris officiating.

Of Decided Interest.

The wedding of Miss Harriet Truitt Covles, daughter of Mrs. Harriet Spencer Covles, of Williamsburg, Va., to Mr. C.
M. G. Wagstaff will be celebrated in St.
John's Episcopal Church, Hampton, Va., at 4 o'clock on Wednesday afternoon, June 21st, the Rev. George Rogers officiating.

The wedding is of decided interest in Richmond, where Miss Covles has visited her brother, Mr. Dudley R. Covles, now of New York.

Attendees will include Miss Ida Henley, maid of honor; Mr. Henry Mc-Gilbert Wagstaff, best man; Mr. Edward Spencer Covles, Mr. William Lee Covles, Mr. W. T. Dunn, Mr. Gustavus Gaddis, Mr. P. H. Register and Mr. Lawrence T.
Gatwood.

The bride will be given away by Mr.
Dudley R. Covles. An extended wedding trip will follow the marriage, after which Mr. and Mrs. Wagstaff will reside in Newport News.

Christian—Ruffin.

Immanuel Church, Hanover county, was the scene of a beautiful marriage on the afternoon of June 14th, when Miss Bebecca Beverley Ruffin became the bride of Mr. Henry Harrison Christian. The church was tastefully decorated with daisies and ferns, and mountain ivy. A large arch under which the couple stood was crowned with handsome magnolias, and the lamps and window sills were gracefully draped with green vines.
Just before the bridal party entered the church, the wedding hymn, "O Perfect Love," was sweetly sung by Mrs. Richard Meade, Mrs. Clarence Cadot, Mr. Robert Harrison and Mr. Conway Gordon.

After the singing of this hymn the strains of Lohengrin's wedding march broke forth, and the two little ribbon girls, Mary Beverley Ruffin and Louise Everard Broadbush, nieces of the bride, marched up the aisles to remove the ribbons, that the bridal party might pass through. The ushers, Messrs. Richard

JULIAN W. TYLER, FIRST AND BROAD.

Meade, Edmund Christian, Robert Harrison and Conway Gordon, went next, followed by the maid of honor, Miss Julie Ruffin, the bride's sister, who preceded the couple to the altar.

The bride is the popular daughter of Mrs. Lottie Meade Ruffin and the late Julian C. Ruffin, and a granddaughter of Mr. Edmund Ruffin. On her mother's side she is a descendant of Bishop Meade and of General Everard Meade, of the Revolution. The groom is a son of the late Dr. William Albert Christian, of "Cruigton," Henrico county, Va., and is a great stepson of William Henry Harrison, one of the Presidents of the United States, and a near kinsman of President John G. Tyler, and is of the family of "Brandon" Harrison.

After the ceremony, which was impressively performed by the Rev. S. O. South-all, Mr. and Mrs. Christian returned to "Marlbourne," the beautiful and hospitable home of her mother, where she held an informal gathering of the bridal party and a few friends, mostly from Richmond, and a repast served in the old Virginia manner.

The bride was attired in an exquisite gown of white crepe chiffon over white taffeta, and wore a tulle veil, caught with a clasp of turquoise and pearls, and carried a shower bouquet of white sweet peas.

The maid of honor was very handsome in a white chime silk.
Mrs. Cadot wore a lace gown; Mrs. Richard Meade, white organdy; Miss Lucy Christian, embroidered mull; Miss Helen Stockell, pale blue silk; Mrs. Carter, black silk; Mrs. Rennie, white organdy; Mrs. Broadbush, white china silk over pale green; Mrs. Lottie Ruffin, the bride's mother, black silk and pearls; Mrs. Julian Ruffin, in fine mouseline and lace; Mrs. H. C. Britton, in black silk.

The city guests were charmed with the informality of the country, and after they had offered their congratulations to the happy couple, they strolled about the lawn and hillside, admiring the beautiful view of the "flow grounds," whose waving grain and green fields formed a most attractive landscape. The moon shone forth in all her beauty as daylight faded away, and her soft rays gave luster and sweetness to the picture which nature had already formed.

Among the guests were Mr. Edmund Christian, Mrs. William Pittsburg Carter, brother and sister of the groom, and Mrs. Joseph Rennie, all of Norfolk; Mr. and Mrs. R. E. Broadbush, of Newbern, N. C.; Mr. and Mrs. Lorraine Ruffin, Miss Lucy Christian, and Mrs. Richard Meade, Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Cadot, Mr. Conway Gordon and Mr. Robert Harrison, all of Richmond; Miss Helen Stock-ell and Mrs. Cabanis, of Petersburg; Mr. and Mrs. Julian Meade Ruffin, Mr.
William B. Wormley and Mr. and Mrs.
John Minor.

Murrell—Dillard.

Mrs. James Spotswood Dillard has issued invitations for the marriage of her daughter, Margaret Woodruff, to Mr. Alfred Huntington Murrell, son of the late William H. Murrell, and nephew of Mr.
John D. Murrell, of Richmond.

The ceremony will take place Wednesday evening, June 28th, at 8 o'clock, in the home of the bride, No. 1106 Federal Street, Lynchburg. Mr. Murrell is originally connected with the Lynchburg office, and both he and Miss Dillard are representatives of Lynchburg's best and most cultured society.

Fisher—Richmond.

At the wedding of Miss Anne Hinton Richmond to Mr. Edward C. Fisher, of Richmond, taking place in Milton, N. C., Wednesday evening, June 14th, the church was beautifully decorated with ferns, mosses and silver candelabra. An arch spanned the altar, and a wedding veil of white robes was suspended from it.

The bride, gowned in white crepe de chêne over taffeta, worn with a tulle veil and orange blossoms, and carrying a shower of bride roses, entered with her maid of honor, Miss Lucy Mayfield Richmond, who wore white silk mill and had a bouquet of white roses.

Just preceding them came the ring-bearer, little Miss Lucy Richmond Lenz, of Concord, N. C., in accordance with white silk, bearing the ring on a silver plate. The bride was given away by her cousin, Dr. H. J. Dodson, of Greenesboro, N. C., and was met at the altar by the groom, with his best man, Mr.
James A. Fisher, of Richmond.

The bridesmaids and groomsmen entered in the following order: Miss Sue Lewis Richmond, of Milton, N. C., with Mr.
Charles E. Fisher, of Richmond; Miss Sallie Salzman, of Redville, N. C., with Mr. William Palmer Jervey, of Petersburg, Va.; Miss Priscilla Harding Dodson, of Greensboro, N. C., with Mr.
Cary S. Fisher, of Richmond, Va.; Miss Emily H. Watkins, of Milton, with Mr.
Hunt Stockell Morrell, of Richmond; Miss Helen Fisher, of Richmond, with Mr.
John Lewis Richmond, of Durham, N. C.; Miss Kate Watkins Lewis, of Goldboro, N. C., with Mr. Darrell Jervey, of Powhatan county, Va.; Miss Emma Carrington Fisher, of Richmond, with Mr. W. H. Strider, of Chester, Va.; Miss Mary Dodson Richmond, of Danville, with Mr. Charles D. Richmond, of Norfolk. The bridesmaids were in charming toilets of white organdy, with high gardens of white silk. Their arm bouquets were of white carnations.

A reception from 9 to 11 Wednesday evening was held in the home of the bride. Receiving with the bride and groom were Miss Lucy M. Richmond, Miss Mary C. McNeely, Miss Helen and Miss Emma Carrington Fisher. Out-town guests included Miss Anne H. Lewis, of Danville; Mrs. W. J. Montgomery, of Concord, N. C.; Mrs. Hiram Ford, of Spray, N. C.; Miss Mary Ransauer, of Concord; Miss Elizabeth Ford, of Spray; Mr. William B. Lewis, of Danville; Judge W. J. Montgomery, of Concord; Miss Emma Lee, of Danville; Mrs. William B.
Morris, of Durham; Mr. and Mrs. George S. Cunningham, of Cunningham, N. C.;

Mr. Nathaniel Richmond, of Cunningham, N. C.

After a Northern trip the bride and groom will be at home at No. 110 South Fifth Street.

Vocal Studio Recitals.

On Monday and Wednesday afternoon Miss Effie Aylett Cofer had the last of the recitals of her vocal class in her studio, No. 203 East Franklin Street, which was decorated in sweet peas and wild flowers and made especially attractive. A most interesting programme was presented, and the work of those taking part was very artistic. All of the young ladies sang with ease and expression.

An attractive feature of the programme was the concerted work; duets, trios and harmonized quartettes of female voices.
The superior quality of this work especially showed the careful and thorough training received. Those taking part were Misses Tomlinson, Smith, Manning, Gret-crane, Craddock, Bowie, Stark, Willingham, Pulley, Robinson and Taylor. At the close of the last evening all of the young ladies united in singing their class song, to the tune of "Auld Lang Syne," the words of this song were composed by Miss Corn Tomlinson, a member of the class.

Pupils' Recital.

Miss Zelle Minor's piano class will give a pupils' recital at the Woman's Club, No. 21 East Franklin Street, Tuesday, June 20th, at 8:30 P. M.

Teufel—Eck.

A very pretty home wedding was celebrated Wednesday night, June 14th, when Miss Josephine Eck, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Adam Eck, became the bride of Mr.
Bruno Teufel at the home of the bride's parents, No. 813 North Fifth Street, with the Rev. Paul Menzel as celebrant.

The parlors were tastefully decorated with cut flowers, palms, ferns and shaded lamps. The horseshoe under which the bride and groom stood was of maiden hair ferns and white flowers and was caught with large bows of white satin ribbon.

Little Miss Minnie Maude Krouse, cousin of the bride, served as ring-bearer.
The bride was gowned in white and carried white carnations, while her maid of honor, Miss Marie Walters, wore white over pink and carried pink carnations.
Mr. Louis Eck, brother of the bride, was best man.

After the marriage, all were asked to the dining-room, where a most delicious supper was served to all.

Mr. and Mrs. Teufel left on the 10:45 train for Cincinnati, where they will spend two weeks of their honeymoon.

The presents were numerous and handsome. Among the out-of-town guests were Mr. and Mrs. Belcher and their daughter, Miss Almer, from Washington, D. C.
